CUBA'S FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Bumors of a Skirmish Between Spaniards and Insurgents.

Revolt in Town of Baire Said to Have Been Quelled.

MADRID, Feb. 28.-Official despatches from Havana state that the rebels in ber about 120 men. The town of Baire declared in favor of the rebels, but it is said that the insurrection there was

It is also officially announced that the Spanish troops defeated rebels in the province of Matanzas. The Spanish are actively pursuing the rebels.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 28.-It is rumored here that a Cuban general at the head of 500 men had a skirmish with Spanish forces in the interior on Monday, W. J. Lewis, of Scranton, Pa., who arrived here by steamer yesterday, left Havana on Monday. He said that on Saturday night he was awakened by the ringing of church bells, a firing of a few shots, and what he thought was a general alarm. He could learn no tain that Austria-Hungary will accep-

Three generals of the former revolution, Trujillo, Aguerrire and Sanguilly, were arrested at their homes in Havana on Sunday before they could escape. The latter was a very brave General in the former war and was much feared by the Spaniards. The Home Rule party demand the release of Trujillo, as he is their Secretary, but it is likely that the the Uprising in the Little Island. The Ward line steamship Orizaba. which arrived this morning from Havana, brings news that the whole Island has been under martial law since Feb. 24. Great excitement prevailed in ing to the arrest of the old Cuban Gen. Julio Sanguili and about thirty members of the first families of Havana. All are imprisoned in the military Fort Cabanas.

It was also reported that about one hundred persons who sympathized with the revolutionists, were also arrested and imprisoned. The arrest of these persons caused great excitement among was the commencing of the Carnival.

There was no news from the interior of the island. It was stated that the people of the northern portion were in favor of Gen. Manuel Garcia taking charge of operations against the Government while the people of the Southern part of the island were unfavorable to him and wanted another leader.

Owing to the short stay of the Orizaba at Havana, in all about forth hours, nothing further of a special nature could be learned. It was rumoren that the threatened uprising of the Cuban revolutionists had been betrayed by one of their own party to the Government, which took prompt measures to suppress it by arresting Gen. Sanguill and his immediate followers.

DIDN'T DWELL IN UNITY.

Directors Call Hard Names and Turr Off the Lights.

The United States Mutual Accident Association held a stormy meeting for lection of officers last night, at 320 Broadway. The proposed transfer of the Company's policies to the United States Casualty Company, divided the Association into two lively factions, both Association into two lively factions, both of which were actively represented. While the meeting was in progress some one turned off the electric lights.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Mercantile Benefit Association was held also last evening, and, after three hours session, ended in a row. Vice-President Rosenheim, who was in the chair, was called a liar and a secondrel, and one member playfully offered to blacken both of his eyes. Then the quarrel became general. A man who claimed to be one of the organizers of the Association, smashed a chair with his cane, and called the President an ass.

shoe knife was used to commit the crime.

Herres had a bad temper, but yester-lay he was more than ordinarily vicious, and last night started an unprovoked attack upon his wife. With a small knife used in his shoe shop, he slashed an ugly gash in her ibroat and ended by stabbing her repeatedly in the breast. Helieving her dead, he attacked Fannie, almost severing her head from the body, and then, with the same instrument slashed his own throat from ear to ear, dying almost instantly.

His children were absent.
